

Tiffany Watson currently lives in Ellijay Georgia. She attended Reinhardt College, graduating Cum Laude in 2002, with a Bachelor of Arts in Communication. She began what has become a life of giving when she became the Director of Gilmer County Family Connection, a non-profit organization that brings community partners together to focus on pressing local issues that affect many families in this area. In 2014, she became a Board Member for Present Hope Ministry which provides education and food to children in Haiti. She became her own boss in 2014, when she opened her business Endless Ink, selling ink/toner for printers and copiers. She was honored in 2017, to become a certified Native American Business Owner. Currently serving as a board member for the Gilmer County Chamber of Commerce, and active liaison between the Board Members and the Chamber Ambassadors. Tiffany says her greatest "job" so far is being a mother to 3 young boys, one of whom has had health challenges. She has again turned these challenges into helping others by becoming an advocate for mothers of sick children, speaking at medical conferences and legislative meetings, giving a mother's perspective on its impact on the family.
