

Currently in her first term as City Councilor, Brooke Schmidt has been a Canton resident since 2006. A graduate of Queens University in Charlotte, North Carolina, she holds degrees in English and Communications. Brooke is a professional editor and writer who has also worked as a community activities director. Public and cultural arts and tourism/economic development are her passions as she serves residents in her role on Council.

Brooke and her husband Brian, a consultant at a Marietta-based engineering firm, have been married 23 years. They work to hold family dinner at least three nights a week with their two busy teenagers while their rescue dog Rooster enjoys begging tableside.

Brooke is a regular volunteer with Forever Fed and sits on the board of the G Cecil Pruett Community YMCA.
