

Keith Burton is a resident of Gilmer County and has been in the restaurant business for the last six years. A former owner of Cold Creek at North Oaks in Dalton, Georgia, Keith now owns and operates Boardwalk Pizza & Pub in Ellijay. He's a hands-on owner who is happy to take the orders and make the pizzas when he's not greeting & chatting with the many local patrons and tourists who are drawn to the welcoming downtown Ellijay Boardwalk.

A father of four, when Keith's not working, he stays busy with his grandchildren. He considers himself fortunate to live in an area where he can easily enjoy his other pastimes: riding his motorcycle and fly-fishing.

Keith is an active member of the Gilmer County Chamber of Commerce and a supporter of several local organizations such as The Gilmer County Animal Shelter and the Downtown Ellijay Business and Community Association as well as Georgia Mountain Hospice.
