

Karrie Poole is a seasoned telecommunications professional with 18 years of experience at Lucent Technologies and Alcatel. She holds an associate degree in Accounting from Chat Tech, which has provided her with a solid foundation in financial management. Alongside her husband, Michael Poole, she co-owns Southeast Outdoors Solutions, a company specializing in the sale and installation of commercial playgrounds, dog parks, shades and shelters, and outdoor amenities. In February 2023, Southeast Outdoors Solutions was honored as the Small Business of the Month, a testament to their commitment to quality and community service. Karrie is also the president of Hope House of North Georgia, where she is dedicated to supporting individuals and families in need. As the chair of the Little Food Pantries initiative with the Rotary Club of Jasper, she actively works to combat food insecurity in the community. Additionally, she is an active member of the Pickens County Chamber, contributing to local business growth and community development.

A proud mother of two, Karrie enjoys balancing her professional and community endeavors with family life, including supporting Jenna, who attends the University of North Georgia, and Jax, who is a student at North Georgia Christian Academy.

In her free time, Karrie loves cheering on the Bulldogs during the fall season, traveling, enjoying time by the pool, experiencing wind therapy, and cherishing moments with her family.
